VOL. IV. NO. 29.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1898.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Mr. Vosburg's assignment of weights to the horses engaged in the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps, besides giving horsemen something to talk about each spring, also serves as inspiring notice of the fact that springtime and resumption of active racing operations are drawing near. The weights published Tuesday make the usual display of skill in adjustment within the all too narrow limits characteristic of handicapping in this country. In the Brooklyn there are forty pounds between the top and bottom weights and thirty-nine in the Suburban. This is not sufficient to bring a good horse and a bad horse together, yet it is the usual practice and so has the sanction of custom.

All horsemen expected that Ben Brush and Ornament would be the topweights in this year's Brooklyn and Suburban. They will be interested in noting that on the basis of weight for age, Mr. Vosburg rates Ornament a pound better than Ben Brush. These horses met but once last year and that was when in the Fourth Special at Gravesend, September 25, Ben Brush carrying 126 pounds to Ornament's 118, beat him three lengths in 2:10 over a slow track. Previously, over a fast track, Ornament had beaten a great field in the Twin City Handicap, doing the distance with ease in 2:05½, carrying 118 pounds. Ornament is probably a faster horse than Brush and as between the pair, the weights are apparently about what they should be.

Declarations from these two races will be made Feb. 21 and until it is known what horses are to be left in it is of small value to comment on their apparent comparative chances. In a general way it may be said that none of the 3-year-olds have any very rosy prospects of success. Great as Henry of Navarre was he could not win the Brooklyn with only 100 lbs. up and yet a few months later he could have given the winner, Dr. Rice, weight and a beating without difficulty. These races are run too early in the year for 3-year-olds to contend successfully with their better developed and more seasoned elders, and besides the 3-year-olds are always too harshly handicapped. On his best form Tillo, 118, is nicely weighted.

Mr. Schorr could hardly ask for more favorable imposts than have been assigned to Meadowthorpe, 108, and Macy, 105. The two California cracks, The Roman, 107, and Fleur de Lis, 104, have apparently been let in very light, but they are more than 3,000 miles away, and no matter what their form may be in California Mr. Vosburg knows it is a very difficult thing to transport them over the long and harrassing journey to New York without deterioration, and, no doubt, makes due allowance for that element in allotting weights. Typhoon II is well in at 114, and if he comes out in his best form this season will give Bromley & Co a royal chance for the big races. Other horses that seem to be well treated are Box, 100, a horse of the most phenomenal speed but very bad tempered and unreliable; Senator Bland, 109, a good race horse; Merry Prince, 105, a really fine 3-year-old in 1896; Ogden, 109, a failure last year, but one who this year may show that his Futurity victory was no fluke. On the whole the handicaps will stand against any amount of discussion and dissection.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Senator Bronston has introduced a bill in the Kentucky Senate that should become a law. The bill prohibits bookmaking or poolselling except on the race tracks, and then only fifteen days at each meeting, and not exceeding two meetings a year. Peace officers failing to suppress unlawful poolselling are made guilty of

BROOKLYN AND SUBURBAN.

The weights for the two greatest handicaps of the American turf, the Brooklyn and Suburban, having been published, DAILY RACING FORM submits for the service of its readers a comparative table of both races, showing in convenient form the weights assigned in each event by Mr. Vosburg, the eastern scale of weights for age for May, when the Brooklyn will be run, and for June when the Suburban will be decided; and also the number of pounds on and off the scale in the handicap allotments of weight for each event. This table is one that will do to keep, since it presents in compact form, information that is often desired when future books are opened on these great races.

malfeasance in office, and violation of the act is made a felony.

The smashing good colt The Roman pulled up slightly lame after his last race, Martin dismounting and walking back to the scales. As he was led away The Roman showed no signs of lameness and is thought to be all right. People who have wished to see this exceedingly game horse on the eastern tracks this year will certainly hope no serious injury has befallen him.

D. T. Murray, the Detroit "phony" candidate for starter on the Northern Racing Circuit of 1898, hasn't the chance of a pancake in a poorhouse. A competent man will be chosen from this list: J. A. Caldwell, James Ferguson, C. J. Fitzgerald, W. Fitzpatrick or H. D. Brown. John Carter will be the presiding judge through the circuit. This is official.

Capt. Jas. H. Rees of Memphis has been selected for the position of presiding judge at Oakley. It is a selection that does credit to the judgment of the Oakley managers for a better qualified man for the position is not now connected with the turf.

Charles Kerr, the Bakersfield, California, breeder, has secured from Ed Corrigan the stallion Lew Weir, by Longfellow—Latonia, and will use him in the stud. Lew Weir was a good race horse, is highly bred and should make a decided mark in the list of California sires.

H. T. Griffin has sold Rubicon to T. A. McGowan for $2,500. McGowan is a young San Francisco lawyer with a penchant for a good horse, and he now certainly owns one. He has never been at his best in California.

MONTREAL STAKE CONDITIONS.

In addition to the stakes heretofore announced for Highland Park, Fort Erie and Windsor, Secretary Walter O. Parmer has prepared and publishes in this issue of DAILY RACING FORM the terms of four stakes for the fourth member of the Northern Racing Circuit, Montreal. They are each of the guaranteed value of $1,000, entrance $5 to accompany the nomination, $45 additional to start. The Windsor Hotel Stakes, 1 mile, and the Belair Stakes, 1 1/8 miles, are for 3-year-olds and upward, while the Forest and Stream Stakes and the St. Lawrence Stakes are both for 2-year-olds at five furlongs. These stakes are liberal in their terms, and turfman who design taking in the Northern Circuit cannot profitably refrain from making entries to all.

Winner—Br. c, by St. Andrew—Lorilla.
Start bad. Won in a hard drive. Five horses were in contention. Milt Young was best but poorly ridden. He will do better as the distance stretches out. Santello was away flying and lucky. Odd Eyes is a good colt. Watch him. He was shut off at start and on the first turn. He is ready; was eased up at the end. Formero was poorly handled and cut off at start. He was closing at finish. Urian was lucky and showed early speed. Ireland was hustled too much after being virtually left. Watch Fan. She was poorly handled and is promising.

Winner—Br. g, 5, by Blazes—Miss Hall.
Start good. The first five were driving. Plan was the best but most unlucky and poorly managed. He would have won in thirty yards. Got away slowly and was shut off too. Morinel, Ball and Racing Form ran their races. Morinel favors mud and a route. Gwynn was outclassed. Scratched—La Fontera, 102; Chappie, 104; Red Glenn, 107.
Overweights—Durwad, 1½ pounds; Highland Ball, 1½.

Winner—Br. c, 3, by St. George—Levee.
Start fair. Won driving. Lee outclassed the field and ran a good race after being twice shut off early. He was none too well ridden. Polish ran his race, was well ridden and is ready. So is Ross. Watch her. Throw out Olive's race. She was vilely ridden. Red Glenn was a good horse at end and is in good condition. Tab him.

Winner—Br. g, 7, by Pirate of Penzance—Lady Stanhope.
Start good. The first three were driven out. Clarence was best and Cripple most fortunate. Cripple was well ridden while Clarence was not helped at all in the finish. Both are ready. The Bachelor cannot run in moist footing. He is fit, though. Tab him for fast going. Personne seems to have staled. Throw out the race.

Start good. Won driving. Budd seemed best. He failed at the end because much used. Mestor was lucky and well managed. Presidio jumped cleanly. Esperance ran a good race and showed much speed. He weakened in the final run. Silverado was a good thing and had a good chance when he fell. Watch him.

Winner—B. c, by Maxim—Daniella.
Start good. Won in a gallop. Maxello is the best colt so far shown here. Only Traverser, Marmion and Flanders have any business with him. He'll beat them. Tyrant ran his race and made up a lot of ground besides outgaming Gartland, who is a coward. Midrica was short but can be tabbed.
Scratched—Morelito, 112.
